My Father in All

As I laid in bed, and looked down the hall
What did I see, my Father in all
Let me explain, just what I saw
It was Jesus, at the end of the hall
Scared and confused, was just a kid
Under the covers, is where I hid

Struggled in life, and now much older
Finally turned around, when He tapped on my shoulder
Excited to know, Yeshua is my friend
Saved, sealed, delivered, in the Book of Life it is penned
Standing by Your side, best friends beyond the end

Thank You to my Father in all
For picking us up, no matter how much we fall
Trust in the Lord, He will pull us through
On a forever mission, preview of our life that's in review

God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, I've a Joshua request
To fulfill the task at hand, and live an eternity that's blessed
A cry out to our Savior, to free the oppressed
A gentle whisper to Elijah, Chariots of Fire theme song
May seem short in measured time, yet the journey has been long
Double portion of Spirit, as within Elisha mighty and strong

We'll face our problems, and turn them into solutions
It has begun, the love revolution
It's time to live with Jesus, He is the One
The class we're in, is Life 101
No need to worry, God's already won
A new day is dawning, here comes the Son

Thank You to my Father in all
For picking us up, no matter how much we fall
Trust in the Lord, He will pull us through
On a forever mission, preview of our life that's in review

The Return

Question for us to ponder, what if real is the dream
There are many of you out there, that know what I mean
Pay attention in this life, things aren't always as they seem Look for the meaning, like in this song of many themes
What's real or fantasy, open your mind and you'll see
Your heart is the key, love will set you free

No such thing as coincidence, things happen for a reason
Many signals from the Lord,
to get us through the toughest seasons
Inspirational messages of God, Shelley does preach
We're all starting to live, a Charlie Chaplin speech

God's here to stay
Each and every day
Tell your story to all
God has made the call
No more living in fear
Jesus' return is near

Been taking my time, writing with a slow hand
A Jasher music man's request, to take the stand
Holy Spirit's awakened me, to join the band
Eyes wide open, heading to the Holy Land

Some run the hamster wheel, as their life passes by Others see the Holy City, coming down from the sky
We can all break free, you just gotta try
Time for this evil world, to say goodbye
We're making a move, beginning to set things right
Time to put on, a Johnny Cash suit of white

God's here to stay
Each and every day
Tell your story to all
God has made the call
No more living in fear
Jesus' return is near

Unplug from, the matrix of deception
Wake up and receive, there's no exception
I was running behind, but now I'm caught up
Upload to the cloud, singers provide backup
Bible Project crew, get your learn on with the Lord
A priceless education, that anyone can afford

Lessons from Dorothy, helped this tin man find his heart
Showed me the brains and courage, had been there from the start
We have Glenda's in our lives, kind and loving while battling witches
It's the evil ones, that digs our mind of shallow ditches
Riding on a carriage, listening to Kansas and Toto
Along the narrow path, somewhere over the rainbow

We've sailed beyond, the road of yellow brick
Still standing through it all, brought Oz that old broomstick
Through journeys on this path unknown, we're never on our own
Call God the great and powerful One, there's no place like His home
Tell everyone from east to west, across the hemisphere
It appears very clear, the return of Jesus is near
Only the Father knows, the clock's final gears

Matthew 24:36 (ESV)

"But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only."
